

A Bite-Sized Light Show by concertnova

Poiesis Quartet and XUAN Bring the Immersive Experience to Life

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CINCINNATI—Jumpstart your BLINK Festival evening with Echo Play, concertnova's fusion of live music and visual art that serves as the perfect prelude to a night out!

Audience members can immerse themselves in an intimate performance at Alice OTR, where violinists Jasper de Boor and Max Ball of the Poiesis Quartet bring to life A Mere Breath by Bobby Ge and Knee Play 2 by Philip Glass. Artist XUAN's 270-degree video projection transforms the space as the music unfolds, creating an otherworldly sanctuary where light and sound flow together.

In addition, a specially crafted cocktail will be available from Alice, making Echo Play a complete sensory journey and an ideal first stop before stepping into the vibrant energy of the BLINK Festival. With 15-minute-long shows at 3pm, 4pm, and 5pm, this event is the perfect way to begin the evening.
